

LAKINI FERNANDO

---

Lakini Fernando is a qualified and dedicated educational professional who has a passion to contribute towards intellectual, social, emotional and physical development of young children. She is currently working as an education assistant at Beckenham Primary School. Lakini is an enthusiastic, creative and caring educator who is versed in learning theories and practice, and seeking to provide exceptional quality teaching and care in an energetic team environment. She holds an Early Childhood Education and Care Diploma and has experience in teaching for different age groups including special needs children.

Lakini joined Perth Sinhala School in 2017 and contributed effectively in different ways to the school. Presently she is the teacher of class 2 and one of the dancing choreographers of Perth Sinhala School. She has choreographed number of dancing items of which one of the recent dancing items presented at multicultural competitions won the first and third places.

From small age, Lakini studied Sri Lankan traditional dancing and has recently started her own dancing class in Perth to share the knowledge of traditional dancing among the community. She is a proud wife and a mother of a six-year-old son and loves to spend the weekend with her family.

