

NADEE GANGA

Nadee Ganga is currently studying her English Diploma at TAFE Australia. She is a qualified teacher who graduated from University of Peradeniya in Sri Lanka. Nadee has been teaching with Perth Sinhala School since 2016. During her tenure in Perth Sinhala School she has demonstrated her exceptional skills in language, drama and poetic writing.

After graduating, Nadee had been working as a Sinhala and Buddhism teacher in Sri Lanka and United Arab Emirates. Before moving to Australia in 2016, Nadee spent more than 15 years in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates (UAE) working with young Sri Lankan children to improve their Sinhalese language. This institute (Abu Dhabi Friday School) is managed by Sri Lankan Embassy in UAE.

She also actively involved in organizing some major community and cultural programs under the patronage of Sri Lankan Embassy in United Arab Emirates. Nadee is currently settled in Willetton with her husband and two daughters and mostly loves to engage with music and dancing programs.

