She has been working with children for over 20 years. She's currently working as an educator in Cannington Early Learning. Having the opportunity to watch the way children learn and grow is one of the best and most enjoyable aspects of her job. Nayana is passionate about teaching the children about her native language, Sinhalese. She has been teaching at our community school since 2014.

She has two lovely boys and loves to spend time with them. She also enjoys cooking for friends and family.
